What We Will Learn This Month

Welcome 1st Grade Family!

My name is Mrs. Coleman and I am so excited about our first week of school. I hope you and your child are excited and eager to embark on this journey. We will spend our days getting to know our friends and practicing expectations in the classroom. We will work together to create a welcoming and safe environment where every student's ideas are valued and celebrated. Your presence will enrich our classroom community. Let's make this school year one of growth, learning, and happy memories.
