$\begin{array}{c} \textbf{Summer Reading List} \\ \textbf{Students Entering 4}^{th} \ \textbf{Grade} \end{array}$

By maintaining an active literacy life over the summer, you ensure your child the best start to the next grade level!

Happy Reading and Writing!

IMPORTANT NOTE TO PARENTS: PLEASE DON'T BECOME CONCERNED OVER READING LEVELS

• In Elementary school, each child is developing on their own continuum, and it is useless to assess your child's strengths as a reader by his/her reading level alone. To develop strength as a reader, children need lots of time to read lots of books that are "just right" for their abilities.

FAQ: WILL HAVING MY CHILD READ HARDER BOOKS HELP THEM GET STRONGER AT READING?

Nope! Exactly the opposite can happen!

- It is critically important that children not read books that are too difficult for them. Research has shown that reading books that are at the "frustration level" can actually stunt a readers' growth, or send them backwards in their development.
- When in doubt, help your child select books that feel "friendly/familiar" to other books they have enjoyed. Also, check out series books - many of the books in this packet are part of a series. Not only is it fun to follow familiar characters through new adventures and experiences, but reading through a book series can help readers grow!

FAQ – MY CHILD REALLY CAN READ HARDER BOOKS THROUGH – AND WANTS TO! THEY CAN READ ALL THE WORDS ON THE PAGE WITHOUT MAKING MISTAKES. THEY EVEN SEEM TO KNOW WHAT'S GOING ON THE IN STORY. ARE YOU SURE I SHOULDN'T GIVE THEM MUCH HARDER BOOKS?

Good question, but proceed with caution!

- "Harder books" often deal with themes and issues that are more mature. These texts, while perhaps "readable" or "decodable" by your child, may not be developmentally appropriate for your child's age. Also, please keep in mind that just because readers can read each word on the page smoothly and without error, does not mean that they are able to comprehend the sophisticated themes and layered plot lines that these texts may contain.

Have a safe and happy summer!

Please help your child select books that you are 100% confident your child can read independently with ease, and that are clearly written for readers the age of your child. You will see the results of this important, careful book selection work in September! ©

Summer Reading

Need suggestions for beach reading or books to bring to camp? Check out these hand-picked titles that are ideal for the season.

The Outlandish Adventures of Liberty Aimes written by Kelly Easton, illustrated by Greg Swearingen (Lamb/Random)

In this contemporary fantasy, Libby does everything from communicating with animals to discovering "lifting soda," which carries her into a city filled with adventures. 201 pages.

The Dream Stealer written by Sid Fleischman, illustrated by Peter Sis (Greenwillow)

An omniscient narrator describes eight-year-old Susana's encounters with the nightmare capturing Dream Stealer, who grows weary of his mission and starts collecting happy dreams. 90 pages.

Alvin Ho: Allergic to Camping, Hiking, and Other Natural Disasters written by Lenore

Look, illustrated by LeUyen Pham (Schwartz & Wade/Random)

In his second book, second grader Alvin, little sister Anibelly, and their dad go camping, coming face-to-face with the troubles, hilarities, and joys of the outdoors. 170 pages

Thumb and the Bad Guys written by Ken Roberts, illustrated by Leanne Franson (Groundwood)

Thumb and his friend Susan try sleuthing in their isolated Canadian village, encountering fishy characters like Old Kirk McKenna and a new teacher who wears thick makeup and an obvious wig. 120 pages.

Mudville written by Kurtis Scaletta (Knopf)

After twenty-two years of rain in Moundville, the sun has finally come out, and twelve-year-old baseball lover Roy assembles a team that brings life to a whole town. 266 pages.

Frindle written by Andrew Clements, illustrated by Brian Selznick (Simon)

When Nick reinvents the name for pen, a hilarious student-teacher battle ensues. 105 pages.
